

Generating an API key

In the My account section of Weedmanager, you can generate an API key that's associated with your user account. It can only be used for map feeds (which are read-only), and it can be changed any time by generating a new key, which will disable any previously used keys.

